

Mike Rayburn's Print-ready Entertainment Summary

Approximately 130 words. If space is an issue any combination of paragraphs will work.

“Classically Trained, ...Comically Derailed!”

Known as the "Worlds' Funniest Guitar Virtuoso" (eh, more or less...), Mike uses his uproarious songs and world-class guitar work to create a show unlike anything you've ever seen! Mike has received standing ovations at all eight of his Carnegie Hall performances and is currently headlining on the strip in Las Vegas.

"A comic genius... enough wit and talent to jumpstart a pacemaker!" raves the Aspen Daily News.

A favorite on XM/Sirius comedy, Mike has been featured in Newsweek, USA Today, Billboard, Gig, American Entertainment and on the nationally syndicated "Bob and Tom" radio show. Most recently Mike was voted "America's Best Solo Artist" by American Entertainment Magazine.

"If Victor Borge played guitar (and drank too much coffee) he'd sound like Mike," says Carnegie Hall promoter, Mark Johnson.
